Greetings to Our fair and noble populace!

The summer sun is upon us and Our lands abound with green fields and golden flowers. We would like to thank the Barony of Unser Hafen for a splendid time had by all at Glory. Friendships old and new were well met on the field and at Our tables. This years Glory proved to be a grand event. We would also thank the Barony of Dragonsspine for a delightful time at Baron's War. The lighthearted fun enjoyed by so many lifted Our hearts. This event was truly entertaining.

Our subject, Christopher Blackwood, has stepped up as the new Kingdom Hospitaller. We thank him for his continued service to Our Kingdom.

As you read these words, We are making Our travels to the far reaches of the Known World and visiting Our cousins and friends in the lands of AEthelmearc at Pennsic War. Then home to Our own lands to visit the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun for Clann War!!

We now look forward to the time when we must find Our heirs. As Crown Tournament approaches, we will be accepting letters of intent from those who wish to vie for the Stag Thrones. We are looking back to some old Outlands history and asking that all letters of intent (hard copy, no email letters will be accepted) be received by Us no later than August 30, 2009.

All combatants and consorts must have a working knowledge of kingdom law and Society Corpora. All combatant and consort memberships must be valid the day of the crown tournament list through the duration of the reign for which they are contesting. This is a new law in Corpora as of April 18, 2009. All non-peer combatants must have a letter of support from a peer of the Outlands, and We ask that said peer be present at the time of Our crown tournament to speak on their behalf and show their support.

Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings all,

I am pleased to announce that Master James David has been selected as the next Kingdom Seneschal of the Outlands. He will be stepping in to this position at Crown Tournament in Caerthe. Please give him all of the help and encouragement that I have received. I know he is going to do a great job!

For entrants in Crown Tournament there is a new ruling from Corporate. To enter the Crown list you must have a current membership but within 10 days of winning the tournament you must provide the Kingdom Seneschal with evidence that your membership extends through the end of the upcoming reign. See addendum below for more details.

ADDENDUM

This addendum notes changes made to Corpora as of the last Board of Directors meeting.
EXCERPT FROM THE MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' QUARTERLY MEETING HELD ON APRIL 18, 2009.
IV. OLD BUSINESS
A. Corpora IV.A.2. Revision - Memberships for Royal Lists
To protect the membership from the ramifications that can occur when a reign is invalidated due to an accidental lapse in membership by ruling nobility following change off Corpora Section IV(a)(2) is proposed:
Current:
Section IVA 2
2. Each competitor and projective consort must hold a valid membership on the day to the Royal list, and must maintain that membership until their term of Royalty is over. Positive conformation that the Registry has processed the membership applications is required before anyone may fight or be fought for in a Royal List. Positive confirmation consists of a valid membership card, appearance of the name with a valid membership on a printout from the Corporate Office, a membership label issued by the Corporate Office showing the name and expiration date, or a postcard or letter from the Corporate office confirming that the membership has been received.
Proposed:
2. Each competitor and prospective consort must hold a valid membership on the day of the Royal Lists, and must maintain that membership until their term of Royalty is over. Positive confirmation consists of; a valid membership card, appearance of the name with a valid membership on a printout from the Corporate Office, a membership label issued by the Corporate Office showing the name and expiration date, receipt of online membership (as downloaded from the renewal website), or a postcard or letter from the Corporate office confirming that the membership has been received.

White Stag

To continue the feature from last month, describing some of the kingdom staff herald positions - this month, I'd like to introduce the trio of submissions heralds for our kingdom: Castle, Rampart, and Besom. Castle is the internal submissions herald, collecting submissions from branch heralds around the kingdom and putting them every month into the Letter of Presentation. Baron Randal Carrick is the current Castle. Rampart is the external submissions herald, collecting commentary on those submissions, and deciding which must be returned and which are sent to Laurel on the Letter of Intent. Hlaford AEdheluulf Munec is the current Rampart (though his tenure is up soon - apply now!). Besom is the notifications herald, informing submitters and local heralds of the results of submissions at both the kingdom and Laurel level. Baron Timothy O'Brien is the current Besom.

For those who plan to enter Crown this coming fall but do not yet have a registered name and device, now is the time to get those submissions in, as per kingdom law. For those many wise entrants and consorts whose items are already registered, now is the time to check your banners, shields, favors, and suchlike, so that you will be prepared to display them at Crown.

The Known World Heralds and Scribes Sympoisum is almost upon us in early September and I have already heard of several Outlanders planning to attend. More info at: http://kwhss2009.com/.

The March LoARs has been issued. Of interest on the Cover Letter was a call from Laurel and Pelican for discussion on extending the grandfather clause to allow branches to use now-unregistrable elements from the names of members of the branch, and a clarification from Wreath regarding charges within annulets. If you have feedback on the discussion, please contact me or Rampart. You can read the full LoAR at: http://heraldry.sca.org/loar/.

Chronicler

Greetings,
Did you like the cover for this month? Regardless of your answer I can use your events on the cover, and it won't cost you anything (just have to get it to me before anyone else that month). Increase the knowledge of your event by having it on the cover of the OH.

On a separate note, we have many fine artisans in the Outlands. I ask that you share your knowedge by writing an article about your craft, and what you do. Please help others across our kingdom by sharing your wisdom.

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

The first two meetings for ALL marshals has been held. A list of those people that are marshals and authorizing marshals will be in the next Herald. This list will be updated three times a year and published as a reference for the people of the Outlands. Please let me know your thoughts.

All authorizing marshals are reminded that they are to report each month, even if it is "Hi, I am still here." All authorizations are to be reported to me with the following information: mundane name, SCA name, membership number, membership expiration, and what categories the person is authorized in for fighting. This information is for all categories of fighting (heavy, light, siege, archery, combat archery, equestrian). All of this information will be going into a database for future reports and reference.

Please check your blue and green cards now. Crown tournament is coming up soon.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Archer General

This will be a very busy summer for archery. There are many events that hold the promise of several good shoots. All archers, please take the time to look at your authorization card and check the date. It is up to you to remember when your authorization expires. We want to see you enjoy the many events that will be taking place.

One thing that I would like to encourage is more people becoming Archery Marshals. By doing this, the range is safer by the fact that more people are looking at different things. I would also like to encourage existing Archery Marshals to become more active. These simple actions allow the Archer Marshal in Charge of the line to get help and relief from other marshals. Being MIC can be a thankless job when one doesn't have time to enjoy the activities they are running. However, with a little help from everyone, even the MIC can have fun! Becoming a marshal is not hard, if you have been shooting for at least a year, talk to other marshals, read the handbook and get trained. Most people can become a marshal in just a few practices. The handbook is available with the rules at http://archery.outlands.org/Default.aspx?tabid=319.

I have been watching how the shoots are run and looking at some of the great ideas that people have created for archery shoots. I have created a file in the Outlands Archery Yahoo Groups list for people to place their ideas to share for other marshals to use. It is my hope that we will get a large library of shoots so that MOLs will have an easier time. Remember when you create a new shoot try it out, take it to a practice some time and try a test run with it. Running a brand new shoot at an event is not the best time. There will always be small fixes to take care of.

Forrester

Arts & Sciences Minister

Greeting unto the populace of the Outlands,
As the new Minister of Arts and Sciences, I would like to take a brief moment to introduce myself. My name is Emery de Fittun (Kimberly Butler) and I reside in the Barony of al-Barran. Please feel free to contact me with questions, comments and concerns regarding the arts and sciences in our great Outlands. I can be reached by email at artsandsciences@outlands.org or by phone at 505-293-1206. I hope to see many of you at the Southern Regional A&S Collegium in Fontaine dans Sable.
In service,
THCady Emery de Fittun

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,

Last month for the July OH, I wrote an introductory overview article on our newly created Outlands Academy of Pages for all Outlands youth and teens, ages 8 and up. Each month I will be bringing you in a separate article, new information about the Page Academy and ways that you can support this wonderful learning and service opportunity for our youth.

We are currently working to create websites for both the Outlands Academy of Pages and also a general information website for Outlands Youth. We want to know what information you would like to see on the Outlands Youth website, so please contact me at krege@aps.edu with your ideas. I will be off-line 7/22-8/11 while I travel to Pennsic.

Outlands Academy of Pages

The Outlands Academy of Pages has been created for Outlands children and teens, ages 8 and up and will give our youth many more opportunities to learn about the arts, sciences, marshal arts, service, history and the SCA. All youth will be able to participate in Page Academy classes and activities at events, whether or not they are enrolled in the Page Academy. Enrollment forms, the Page Handbook and other information can be obtained currently from the MOC website at http://www.outlands.org/Default.aspx?tabid=72

The heart of the Page Academy is the "Class-in-a-Bag" and we hope that you will create at least one of these "classes" for the Outlands. The classes will be available both physically and on-line through the Page Academy website, thus greatly expanding the resources and learning opportunities for both our youth and adults. If there is a subject that you have some expertise in and would like to create a "Class-in-a-Bag" or that you would like to see created for the Page Academy by someone else, please contact me at krege@aps.edu, 505-293-7453 and let's talk about it.

We have a number of exciting plans for our youth in the coming year and we need your help. Our local groups' Ministers of Children Officers will be coordinating Page Academy activities in their local areas. For all other local groups, we are looking for individuals who would be willing to coordinate and help with Page Academy and other youth activities and classes. Please contact me if you are interested in being the contact person for your local group or want to volunteer to help.

Some ideas for how you can support our youth and the Page Academy include: Create a Class-in-a-Bag" or write a 15 minute historical, intro script for a "how to" class; Teach a children or teens' class that you created or a Class-in-a-Bag that someone else created; Teach chess, period board games or period outdoor games; Teach an adult A&S class and publicize the minimum age for taking your class; Teach youth about service and provide opportunities and support for youth to be in service; Mentor a child, youth or teen, who wants to learn one of the arts, sciences, or marshal arts; Volunteer to help with a youth activity or to watch others' children, so that their parents can teach the youth; Create and donate draw-string bags for Classes-in-a-Bag; Paint the Academy Badge on Medallions for the pages; Weave Medallion Cords; Donate materials such as shuttles, needles, beads, leather, etc.; Obtain Page Academy materials, such as free copying, printing, laminating, 3-ring binders and school supplies. August is a great month to find great specials for buying Page Academy supplies to donate, such as 8 count crayon boxes, pencils, pencil sharpeners and glue sticks.

This is an established campground with a covered Ramada, picnic tables, bar-B-Q pits, potable water, bear proof trash receptacles (please use them) and bathrooms. Caerthe Hunting tip #2 Make room on your trophy shelves! There will be unique and unusual prizes given to the winning hunt teams.

Caerthe Hunting tip #3 After a day spent hunting in Caerthe there is still plenty to do to keep a hunter happy, like hunting for bargains in Merchants' Row.

Caerthe Hunting tip #4 Go to the feast! Check out the menu below.

After a hard day of battling ferocious beasts, slaying woodland creatures with your fearsome arrows, and wooing fair maidens or lads, come dine upon a feast fit for a king or queen!

Enjoy the open air and warmth of the fire while nibbling on the first course of Stuffed Mushrooms (vegetarian), boiled eggs, olives, and Pumpes (medieval meatballs).

Regale your friends and foes with heroic tales while savoring Roasted Chicken Legs and Thighs with a honey, lemon, and almond dip, Bratwurst (grilled), Rauioles (ravioli in cheese and butter, no meat), and cheddar cheese and apples on a stick!

If your appetite is still not satisfied, two types of Rastons (filling stuffed rolls) will be offered, ham, swiss cheese, and green onion or mushroom (vegetarian). Also, a sallet of fine hearbes and vegetables with an olive oil and vinegar dressing will round out this course.

This Months Puzzle

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

Encrypting Without Substitution

by Suleiman ibn Da'ud ibn Sahl al-Qalqashandi

Recently it was announced that a cipher proposed to President Thomas Jefferson had, after over two hundred years, finally been decrypted! This cipher is actually an advanced form of a family of ciphers not yet discussed in this column but one that was originally proposed in the period encyclopedia Subh al-a 'sha. That family is known as transposition ciphers.

The Subh al-a 'sha discusses seven systems of cipher attributed to Taj ad-Din Ali ibn ad-Duraihim ben Muhammad ath-Tha 'alibi al-Mausili (although his systems were likely based upon the work of Abu Bakr Muhammad ben Yahya as-Suli). In actuality they are not necessarily seven different systems but rather variations on two different methods. One is the monoalphabetic substitution cipher that has been previously discussed here. The second, the transposition cipher, involves shuffling the order the letters.

Within the Subh al-a 'sha, two examples of transpostion are given. It is suggested that a word could be written backwards. Another transposition suggested is to reverse alternate letters. In this case, the current king of the Outlands could be enciphered as amlewgxn (the x has been added as a null letter).

This month's puzzle will be similar to that method with a very slight modification to this example in part because transposition ciphers appear to have been limited within period and therefore did not see great variations. The basis for the plain text will be financial matters in a manner similar to the Arabs who encoded their tax information in a code known as the Qirmeh.

The details of the Qirmeh, however, will be saved for another day.

Note: Last month's puzzle did not get correctly transcribed into the Outlandish Herald because I neglected to emphasize to the chronicler that the formatting in the column was exteremely important. As such, the chronicler appropriately modified the piece to meet the needs of the newsletter but unfortunately, the italicized letters, representing a different script that might have been used by scribes in period to employ steganography, were lost. If you want to see the piece in its original form please contact me at jethrostille@yahoo.com. The answer, however, is still being given below.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER: Three are the fathers and their offspring, seven are the planets and their hosts, and twelfe are the diagonal boundaries. And the proof of this, true witnesses, the Univers, the Year, and the Sole.
- from the Sefer Yetzirah as translated at: http://www.psyche.com/psyche/txt/scholem_sy.html

Outlandish Herald Submission Guidelines

Event Registration Forms can be found on the Kingdom website or from your Seneschal. Please make certain that a copy of the completed form is sent to the chronicler (see page 6 for contact info).

Event Announcements for events held within the boundaries of the Outlands will be printed free of charge. Groups from outside of the Outlands are invited to publish their event announcements at the commercial rates or contact the Chronicler about bartering for ad space, on a space available basis.

Electronic submissions are preferred. Hardcopy submissions will be accepted in any readable form but will be subject to retyping. Event announcements may be edited for length when space limitations occur. Please do not use any special formatting or fonts when submitting event announcements. Deadline for the submission of event announcements is the 1st of the month prior to publication.

ALL event announcements not containing mandatory elements will be returned to the submitter for correction. The following elements MUST be contained in the event announcement to ensure publication in the Outlandish Herald. If these mandatory elements are not included, the event notice will be returned to submitter for correction.

* Name of the event
* Date of the event (day, month and Common Era year)
* Times of the event - when the site opens and closes,
* Name of the sponsoring group
* Mundane location of the site (site name, city, state, zip), and WRITTEN directions. Maps are optional.
* Autocrat information: both SCA and legal names, address, telephone number, email address if available.
* A concise schedule of fees, including a statement regarding non-member fees. If there are no fees associated with the event, that must be clearly stated.
* The statement "Checks payable to 'SCA, Inc - GROUP NAME' ".
* Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
* Any additional site restrictions or information.

Commercial Advertisements:
